

One sky source, three wavelengths, two kinds of focal grid

Fixed angular grid

the source stays put;
the dark ring grows

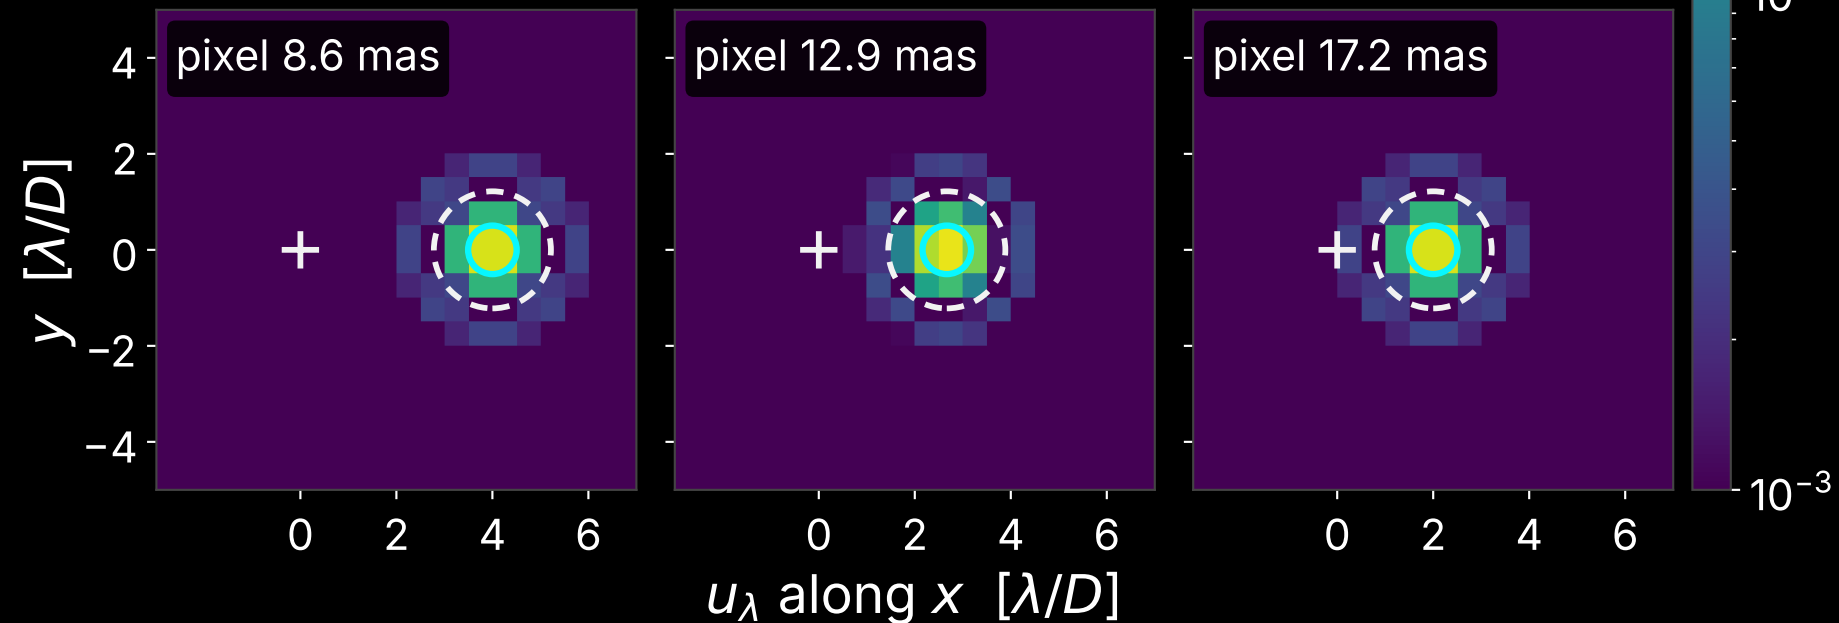

$$u_{\text{ref}} = \alpha D / \lambda_{\text{ref}}$$

Native grid

the dark ring keeps its size;
the source moves

$$u_{\lambda} = \alpha D / \lambda$$

○ sky source at one fixed angle

--- first dark ring (analytic zero)

+ optical axis